TREATY EDUCATION OPPORTUNITIES

The 2022-2023 school year will mark the thirteenth year of Treaty Education in Manitoba. Kudos to the province's school leaders, education practitioners, school communities, and teachers who have embraced Treaty Education, making it a staple in Manitoba's K-12 classrooms.

In 2022 – 2023, The Treaty Relations Commission of Manitoba (TRCM) is offering the following five synchronous online sessions:

- September 19 & 20, 2022 – Open K-12 Regional Treaty Education Training
- November 23, 2022 – Grade 12 SIC: Treaty Education Training
- December 6 & 7, 2022 – School Admin Treaty Education Training
- January 31 & February 1, 2023 – Open K-12 Regional Treaty Education Training
- February 21 & 22, 2023 – French Language K-12 Treaty Education Training

These sessions will be delivered live, allowing participants to engage in discussions and meaningful dialogue with presenters and other registrants. The two-day gatherings will explore the historical and contemporary contexts of Treaties as well as best-practices and tips for successful Treaty Education implementation. Pre-registration is required. There is no fee and participants will be gifted with a Treaty Kit. Reach out to the Treaty Education team at TRCM for information on how your school can participate in the Treaty learning journey.

CSBA CONGRESS 2022

There's still time to register for the 2022 Canadian School Boards Association Congress, hosted by the Saskatchewan School Boards Association this summer in Saskatoon.

The Congress, along with the National Trustee Gathering on Aboriginal Education, runs from July 6 to 8. The events begin with the Gathering's official opening at 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday, July 6. Presenters include Olympian Brigitte Lacquette; Journalist and Podcaster Anna Maria Tremonte; Chief Cadmus Delorme, and more!

The official program wraps up at 12:00 p.m. on Friday, July 8. For the complete list of speakers and full program information, visit the Congress website. Registration is also available online; the deadline is June 29, 2022.

2022-2023 STUDENT ADVISORY COUNCIL

Manitoba students are at the heart of our education system and their opinions should play an important role in the decisions that affect them. The Student Advisory Council was set up to enable youth to contribute their voice in shaping our education system in Manitoba.

The Province of Manitoba is encouraging students (ages 14-18) to apply for its 2022-2023 Student Advisory Council. Up to thirty students from across the province will serve a 12-month term starting in August 2022 and ending in August 2023. Applications are being accepted until June 27, 2022. Learn more and follow the steps to apply online.

FALL GENERAL AND REGIONAL MEETINGS

Mark your calendars now to join us on December 1 and 2 for two days of learning, sharing, and Association business. Day 1 (Thursday, December 1) will be dedicated to professional development for both new and seasoned trustees, and Day 2 (Friday, December 2) will include the general meeting, regional meetings, and other items related to Association business. Details will be finalized over the coming months, but this will be an in-person meeting at the Victoria Inn Hotel and Convention Centre in Winnipeg.

HAPPY SUMMER!

With the end of another school year fast approaching, this will be our last e-bulletin until September. Remember, you can still keep up-to-date in the latest education happenings in Manitoba and beyond by following us on Twitter and Facebook.

The advent of summer also means a change in our office hours. In July and August, we will be closed on Mondays. We are open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Tuesday to Friday, with a lunch hour closure from 12:00 noon to 1:00 p.m.

Our 2022-2023 Professional Development SAVE THE DATES

Dear Manitoba ASCD Network and Leaders in Education,

We are back with four in-person professional learning opportunities for 2022-23.

We anticipate that our network members are craving the energy that comes from in-person learning.

Please expect to hear more about each of these opportunities in the near future, but we wanted you to save the dates.

We hope you are able to make one or more of these opportunities part of your PD plan for the 2022-2023 school year

Sincerely,

Alan Schroeder
President

Chief Cadmus Delorme

Chief Cadmus discusses the road to reconciliation

October 20, 2022 (Evening Event)

Chief Cadmus Delorme, a Cree and Saulteaux, is the Chief of the Cowessess First Nation. Chief Delorme graduated from Cowessess Community Education Centre in 2000. He later moved to Regina to pursue a Bachelor of Business Administration and a Certificate in Hospitality, Tourism and Gaming Entertainment Management from the First Nations University of Canada (FNUUniv), and a Master of Public Administration from the Johnson Shoyama Graduate School of Public Policy. Recently, he has completed an Institute of Corporate Directors designation.

In 2012, Chief Delorme received the Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Medal, recognizing his student leadership and the hospitality he showed to Prince Charles and his wife Camilla, Duchess of Cornwall, when they visited FNUUniv. He was also named one of CBC Saskatchewan's Future 40, which celebrates the province's new generation of leaders, builders and change-makers under the age of 40.

In 2019, Chief Delorme was re-elected to a second term in office. Under his leadership, Cowessess First Nation has focused on economic self-sustainability for its nation and people and has moved forward on renewable energy, agriculture, efficiency in land use initiatives that have created both current and future business opportunities.

This past year, Chief Delorme faced one of the hardest moments as Chief when the Saulteaux and Cree First Nation made international headlines with the discovery of potentially 751 unmarked graves near the former Marieval Indian Residential School. Shortly after, Cowessess made headlines again as the first First Nations community to sign an agreement with Ottawa that returns jurisdiction over children in care to the community. Federal legislation overhauling Indigenous child welfare was passed in 2019 and came into force last year.

Dr. Leyton Schnellert

Creating and Nurturing Collaborative, Inquiry-Based Professional Learning for Teachers

November 1, 2022

Dr. Leyton Schnellert is an Associate Professor in UBC's Department of Curriculum & Pedagogy and Eleanor Rix Professor of Rural Teacher Education. His scholarship attends to how teachers and teaching and learners and learning can mindfully embrace student diversity and inclusive education. Dr. Schnellert is the Pedagogy and Participation research cluster lead in UBC's Institute for Community Engaged Research (ICER) and co-chair of BC's Rural Education Advisory. His community-based collaborative work contributes a counterargument to top-down approaches that operate from deficit models, instead drawing from communities' funds of knowledge to build participatory, place-conscious, and culturally responsive practices. Dr. Schnellert has been a middle and secondary school classroom teacher and a learning resource teacher K-12. His books, films, and research articles are widely referenced in local, national, and international contexts.

Carole Fullerton

Number Sense In Elementary: Seeing the Math in Action

January 31, 2023

Carole Fullerton is passionate about mathematics instruction. Carole is a teacher-leader working in K-12 classrooms to support the development of numeracy instruction across BC, Alberta, Manitoba, Yukon, the Northwest Territories and beyond. Addressing student diversity through rich questions, teaching through problem-solving and planning around the Big Math Ideas are essential aspects of her practice. In her collaborative work, she strives to engage students and their teachers in thoughtful investigations of what it means to DO math, learning through exploration, talk and play.

Dave Martin

Reassessing Assessment Practices in Mathematics

April 27, 2023

Dave Martin has a Masters of Mathematics, a Degree in Education, and has a love for prime numbers. He has been teaching for 12 years, during which time, he was nominated for Teacher of Excellence in Alberta, has spoken across North America, and has successfully removed grades in most of his high school math courses. Dave has taught grades 6 - 12, was one of the division's Math/Science Lead teachers, and is now currently a Vice-Principal of a K-9 school. Some of his passions include playing board games, solving puzzles, and reciting the digits of Pi...starting at the end.
