

ASSIGNMENTS OF STUDENTS TO CLASSES AND GRADE LEVELS

It is the goal of the Division that every student be placed at an appropriate academic level in which the student can achieve success with the appropriate effort. This determination shall be made by the principal, in consultation with parents and teachers and reference to the student's age, previous school's recommendation and available learning assessments.

The decision of the principal shall be final regarding placement of students at a grade level or the reassigning of students within classes.
