

CARE OF SCHOOL PROPERTY BY STUDENTS

Textbooks, and other school equipment and facilities are available to students for their use. Students as well as parents or guardians of minor children are responsible for all undue wear, loss, or damage of school property.

Principals are authorized to make a reasonable charge for replacement or repair of school property lost or damaged because of the negligence, carelessness, inappropriate behaviour or violence of an individual student. Monies collected for damage to items purchased through the school budget may be retained by the school. Monies collected for damage to school or Division property shall be forwarded to the Secretary–Treasurer.
